About the Commission

The D.C. Commission on the Arts and Humanities is the official arts agency of the District of Columbia. Commission programs support and promote stability, vitality, and diversity of artistic expression in the District. The Commission is assisted in its grants making by advisory panels of respected arts professionals and community representatives who make recommendations to the Commission on grant awards.

About the Grants-in-Aid Program

The Grants-in-Aid Program for Organizations offers general operating support to arts organizations in the following areas: crafts, dance, interdisciplinary/performance art, literature, media, multidisciplinary, music, theater, and visual arts. The Grants-in-Aid Program offers arts organizations general operating support and financial assistance to help meet costs related to regular programming activities and administration. The matching fund requirements are designed to enhance an organization's development by leveraging additional support from other sources.

Number of Grants

The total number of grants an applicant may receive in the competitive funding categories of Grants-in-Aid, City Arts Projects and Arts Education Projects is limited to a total of TWO grants for FY2005. An applicant may receive grants in any combination among these grant programs.

Eligibility

Grants-in-Aid funding is available to arts organizations whose primary function is exhibition, presentation or training in the arts. Organizations must have Federal (IRS) and D.C. tax exempt status (subject to DCRA verification) for one year prior to the application deadline and must have their principal place of business in the District of Columbia. Commission funds under this program may not be used for tuition or to fund colleges, universities, service organizations, D.C. Public Schools or government agencies. All applicants and/or grantees are subject to evaluation by the Commission as part of the grants review process. Note: Organizations that are eligible to receive funds from the National Capital Arts and Cultural Affairs Program in FY 2003 are not eligible for FY 2004 Grants-in-Aid program funding. Incomplete applications will not be sent to panel for review.

Grant Amounts/Notification

Organizations may request grants from $3,000 to $15,000. These funds must be matched dollar for dollar, e.g., an organization requesting $15,000 must document $30,000 in expenses. In-kind services may not be used to satisfy the matching requirement. All applicants will be notified of grant decisions in writing after October 15, 2004. All grants are contingent upon the availability of funds.

Grant Period

Grants awarded for FY 2005 must be spent between October 1, 2004 and September 30, 2005. A Final Report will be due by October 15, 2005. All former grantees are required to have submitted any outstanding Final Reports to be considered for funding.

Evaluation Criteria

Further details on the evaluation criteria can be found on page 20 of the FY2005 Guide to Grants Booklet.

To demonstrate artistic merit, applicants are required to submit work samples no more than two years old. Work samples must be labeled with applicant/artist name, title, and date of work. A self-addressed, stamped envelope must be provided for the return of work samples. For audio/video tapes, no more than 10 minutes will be reviewed.

- VISUAL ARTS AND CRAFTS: Up to 20 slides of work from at least two exhibitions and 13 copies of a slide identification sheet.
